Respondents.

On May 18, 2007, Respondents Edward and Maureen Purvis filed a Motion for a 90-Day Extension which requested the administrative hearing scheduled for June 11, 2007 be continued for ninety days. On May 22, 2007 the Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation

1 Commission filed a response requesting the Respondents' request be denied so the administrative
2 hearing could proceed as scheduled.

3 On May 30, 2007 Judge Marc Stern, by Procedural Order, rescheduled the commencement
4 date of the administrative hearing from June 11, 2007 until July 30, 2007. The hearing would 5 adjourn on July 30, 2007 and then continue on August 8, 2007 according to the court's order. If
6 additional days were required, the hearing would reconvene from August 20, 2007 until August 22,
7 2007.

8 Upon receipt of the court's order, the Division contacted its witnesses to determine their 9 availability and discovered that due to scheduling conflicts several witnesses would not be 10 available to testify during the new hearing dates. The Division learned that many of the Division
11 witnesses are available during the month of September; specifically from September 4, 2007
12 through September 12, 2007 and September 17, 2007 until September 26, 2007.

13 Therefore, based on the foregoing, the Division requests a telephonic scheduling conference
14 for the parties to select a new date which would ensure the availability of the Division's witnesses
15 to testify during the administrative hearing.

16 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 11th day of June, 2007.
